

For the Record

By The Moscow Times

October 12, 2010

The  Moscow Times

Silver maker Polymetal said Tuesday that it secured a $150 million credit line from Raiffeisenbank at 3.5 percentage points over Libor. (Bloomberg)

Sakhalin Energy will pay the government $1.8 billion in dividends for 2010 through 2013, Vedomosti said Tuesday, citing two state officials. (Bloomberg)

Total said Tuesday that Gazprom will take a 20 percent stake in the Ipati and Aquio gas licenses in Bolivia, while it will remain the operator. (Bloomberg)

Trakya Cam Sanayii, a Turkish glassmaker, will partner with France's Saint-Gobain to make glass at a factory in Tatarstan by the middle of 2012, with a total investment of 184 million euros ($254 million), the company said Tuesday. (Bloomberg)

The estimated damage from the drought stands at 41.5 billion rubles ($1.4 billion) as Russia's grain harvest nears completion, the Agriculture Ministry said Tuesday. (Bloomberg)

Kazakhstan's grain crop declined by 40 percent this year to 13.6 million metric tons because of the drought, the country's agriculture minister said Tuesday, but added that the crop will meet domestic demand and allow for "average annual" exports. (Bloomberg)

Sukhoi Aircraft's SuperJet, Russia's first major passenger plane since the collapse of the Soviet Union, will deliver its first jet this year to Armenia's Armavia, company vice president Paolo Revelli-Beaumont said Tuesday, adding that they have now have a total of 152 orders. (Bloomberg)

Original url: <https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2010/10/12/for-the-record-2159-a2159>