Nabucco's Kurdish Gas Deal

By The Moscow Times

August 29, 2010

FRANKFURT — Germany's RWE said Friday that it signed a cooperation agreement with the Kurdish Regional Government in Iraq that included future gas supply for the Nabucco pipeline project.

A statement issued by RWE in Germany quoted Iraqi Kurdistan's natural resources minister Ashti Hawrami as saying that up to 20 billion cubic meters of gas a year could be fed into the pipe to Turkey and Europe. ⊠
