Schwarzenegger to Visit

September 15, 2010

California Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger may travel to Russia next month as Silicon Valley entrepreneurs heed President Dmitry Medvedev's call for closer cooperation in high technology.

Schwarzenegger has agreed to head a delegation of U.S. venture capitalists scheduled to attend a Moscow innovation forum in October, Andrei Malafeyev, a spokesman for state-run Rusnano, said Wednesday.

The delegation will visit Moscow and Kazan, Malafeyev said.
