The Moscow Times
30 YEARS
INDEPENDENT NEWS FROM RUSSIA

Polish Cross Removed

September 16, 2010

WARSAW — Polish officials quietly moved a makeshift memorial cross honoring the late President Lech Kaczynski to the presidential palace chapel on Thursday, in an attempt to end a lengthy dispute that divided the nation.

The cross was set up shortly after Kaczynski was killed in a plane crash in Smolensk in April. Relatives of the dead had proposed moving the cross to the Smolensk crash site.

(AP)

Original url: https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2010/09/16/polish-cross-removed-a1505