The Moscow Times
30 YEARS
INDEPENDENT NEWS FROM RUSSIA

Putin Allies to Build Roads

By The Moscow Times

September 20, 2010

Long-term acquaintances of Prime Minister Vladimir Putin will build the country's first major toll roads, Vedomosti reported Monday. Arkady Rotenberg won a government concession to build the new Moscow-St. Petersburg route and Yury Kovalchuk will build the Moscow-Minsk road, the newspaper said, citing companies controlled by both men.

(Bloomberg)

Original url: https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2010/09/20/putin-allies-to-build-roads-a1602