WARSAW — Poland's Foreign Ministry said Russia has arrested three Polish journalists at the site of a plane crash in Smolensk's Katyn forest where President Lech Kaczynski and 95 others died in April.

Ministry spokesman Marcin Bosak said the three were detained Friday for entering twice onto restricted military grounds, and are being questioned.

An official at the Polish Embassy in Moscow, Pawel Koc, called the matter "serious." The all-news station TVN24 said one of its reporters was among those arrested, and that the group had been observing and filming the wreckage.
