

40-Car Pileup in Tolyatti

November 02, 2010

The  Moscow Times

Forty cars, including several trucks and at least two passenger buses, rammed into each other in heavy fog near Tolyatti in the Samara region early Tuesday, Interfax reported.

No one died in the pileup, but three people suffered injuries and had to be cut out of their smashed cars by rescuers, the report said, citing a Tolyatti City Hall spokesman. He did not elaborate on the victims' condition. ☒
