

Rosneft Gets Own Security

By The Moscow Times

February 10, 2011

The  Moscow Times

Prime Minister Vladimir Putin has signed a resolution giving Rosneft permission to set up a private security organization.

Legislative changes came into force at the beginning of last year to prohibit a private security organization from being the subsidiary of an organization engaged in activities other than security.

Transnefteprodukt, a unit of Transneft, was the first organization not performing security functions to be granted the right to found its own private security outfit.

(Interfax)

Original url: <https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2011/02/10/rosneft-gets-own-security-a4922>