

Russia Snubs Syria Talks

June 13, 2011

The  Moscow Times

UNITED NATIONS —  Russia and China snubbed UN Security Council talks on Saturday convened to discuss a draft resolution that would condemn Syria's bloody crackdown on pro-democracy protesters, UN diplomats said.

"Russia and China didn't think it necessary to show up," a council diplomat said on condition of anonymity. "It's a pretty clear message," another diplomat said.

Original url: <https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2011/06/13/russia-snubs-syria-talks-a7585>