

Rebels Claim Budanov Death

July 24, 2011

The  Moscow Times

Islamist militants have claimed responsibility for the Moscow killing of Yury Budanov, a former colonel convicted of murdering a Chechen girl, the insurgency-affiliated Kavkaz Center web site said Saturday.

The web site cited sources in Chechnya as saying the Riyadus-Salikhiyn battalion carried out the June 10 attack.

Budanov was stripped of his rank as an army colonel and convicted in 2003 of strangling 18-year-old Elza Kungayeva during a tour of duty in Chechnya. He was sentenced to 10 years in prison, but won early release in 2009.

The Riyadus-Salikhiyn battalion has taken responsibility for the 2004 Beslan school massacre and a September market bombing in Vladikavkaz.
