The first restaurant of the Osteria Numero Uno chain has opened in the Legendary Tsvetnogo business center at Trubnaya Ploshchad, Cushman & Wakefield, which advised the tenant in negotiations on the 360-square-meter property, said Friday.

Osteria Numero Uno is being developed by RBS — Restaurant Business Systems, which plans to open five restaurants in the next few years.

The second restaurant of the chain is planned to open in April 2012 in Outlet Village Belaya Dacha in a deal also completed by Cushman & Wakefield. RBS runs several other restaurants in Moscow.
