

Charges Over Nuclear Coal

February 08, 2012

The  Moscow Times

BISHKEK, Kyrgyzstan — Prosecutors in Kyrgyzstan say seven people face charges over the import of contaminated radioactive coal from Kazakhstan.

The prosecutor general's office said Tuesday that health and customs officers allowed the coal to be sent to schools, an orphanage and an old people's home.

The case has caused a furor, with rival politicians accusing one another of benefiting financially from the deal.
