

Kaliningrad Hotel Complex Burns Down

March 29, 2012

The  Moscow Times

An entire hotel complex in the city of Kaliningrad burned down Friday, RIA-Novosti reported.

No one was reported injured in the blaze at the Banki hotel complex, which covers a territory of 500 square meters on the outskirts of the city, regional Emergency Situations Ministry spokesman Alexei Trotsak said.

The restaurant complex on the grounds was partially damaged, while the hotel was almost completely gutted from the fire.

Original url:

<https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2012/03/29/kaliningrad-hotel-complex-burns-down-a13695>