

Quake Shakes Tajikistan

May 13, 2012

The  Moscow Times

WASHINGTON — A moderate earthquake of 5.7 magnitude struck near Kulob, Tajikistan, early on Sunday morning, according to the U.S. Geological Survey.

The earthquake hit 100 kilometers north northeast of Kulob at a depth of 10 kilometers, USGS said.

(Reuters)

Original url: <https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2012/05/13/quake-shakes-tajikistan-a14725>