

Diamond Output Up 11% in 2011

By The Moscow Times

August 02, 2012

The  Moscow Times

Russia became the world's largest diamond producer in terms of volume last year, turning out 35.139 million carats at a value of $2.675 billion and an average price of $76.12 per carat — up 11 percent on the year, Interfax reported Thursday, citing Kimberley Process' website.

(MT)

Original url: <https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2012/08/02/diamond-output-up-11-in-2011-a16765>