

Top 10 Insurance Companies Sell $7.4Bln in Premiums in H1

By The Moscow Times

September 17, 2012

The  Moscow Times

The country's top ten insurance companies took in 239 billion rubles ($7 billion) in premiums revenue in the first half of the year, not including mandatory medical insurance, which accounted for 58 percent of all premiums collected in the period, the Federal Financial Markets Service said, Interfax reported.

(MT)

Related articles:

- Advertising and Marketing Medicines: How Does One Adhere to the Law?
- Compliance in Pharma
- Pharmstandard Optimistic

Original url:

<https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2012/09/17/top-10-insurance-companies-sell-74bln-in-premiums-in->

h1-a17863