The Moscow Times
30 YEARS
INDEPENDENT NEWS FROM RUSSIA

Police Probe MTS' Uzbek Competitors

By The Moscow Times

September 24, 2012

Russian police have started a criminal investigation against MTS' competitors in Uzbekistan for restricting the mobile operator's access to the Uzbek telecommunications market, Kommersant reported, citing an Interior Ministry spokesperson. Uzbek authorities have recently withdrawn the license of an MTS subsidiary and filed claims against it.

(MT)

Related articles:

- MTS Contract With Yevroset at Risk
- Foreign Ministry Hopes for Solution to MTS Uzbek Problem
- Belarus Plans MTS Auction This Year

Original url:
https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2012/09/24/police-probe-mts-uzbek-competitors-a18040