The Moscow Times
30 YEARS
INDEPENDENT NEWS FROM RUSSIA

Miller's Union Asks for Imports

By The Moscow Times

November 06, 2012

The country's miller's union said it has asked the government to ease conditions for importing wheat from Kazakhstan and rye from Germany this spring to cover a shortage after drought slashed grain crops.

(Reuters)

Related articles:

- Inflation Dips but Services Prices Up
- Summa Mulls Acquiring Australia's GrainCorp
- Bread Industry in Trouble as Flour Prices Rise

Original url: https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2012/11/06/millers-union-asks-for-imports-a19174