

Ukrainian Prime Minister Survives No-Confidence Vote

April 21, 2013

The  Moscow Times

KIEV — The government of Ukrainian Prime Minister Mykola Azarov survived a no-confidence vote in parliament on Friday. ☒ Only 190 deputies out of 450 supported the motion to dismiss the government, falling short of the required 226 votes.

(Reuters)

Original url:

<https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2013/04/21/ukrainian-prime-minister-survives-no-confidence-vote-a-23451>