

Russia Detains 25 Ukrainian Terror Suspects, Report Says

April 03, 2014

The  Moscow Times

Russia has detained 25 Ukrainians suspected of preparing terror attacks in the southern and central part of the country, a news report said Thursday.

The detained, who were reported as being members of ultra-nationalist movements, were planning attacks between March 14 and 16, the Federal Security Service, or FSB, said in a statement, RIA Novosti reported.

The press service of the Ukrainian state security service, or SBU, dismissed the report as "nonsense."

The announcement came hours after the SBU said FSB staff had been present at the SBU headquarters during of anti-government protests in Kiev.

Original url:

<https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2014/04/03/russia-detains-25-ukrainian-terror-suspects-report-says>

-a33631