The Best Of Russia 2013

April 07, 2014

The project, which is currently displaying photos from 2013 at the Winzavod Center for Contemporary Art, was organized in 2008 by the Winzavod center with the support of the Culture Ministry. In the six years that the project has existed, more than 150,000 photos have been contributed from more than 500 cities all around the country, with participants ranging in age from 6 to 86 and including professional photographers as well as first–time amateurs.
