

Finance Ministry Says Russia Yet to Get Ukraine's $73.3M Eurobond Payment

By The Moscow Times

June 23, 2014

The Finance Ministry had not yet received a $73.3 million coupon payment on a $3 billion Eurobond from Ukraine.

The Finance Ministry said Monday that it had not yet received a $73.3 million coupon payment on a $3 billion Eurobond from Ukraine that Kiev said it had paid on Friday.

"Unfortunately, we cannot confirm as of now the receipt of the coupon payment," the ministry's press service said.

"However, the terms of the bond provide for a 10-day grace period. We expect that the government of Ukraine will fulfill its obligations to pay the coupon during this period."

Russia bought the eurobond in December under a financial aid package agreed with Ukraine's then-President Viktor Yanukovich, who was later ousted and replaced by a government much less sympathetic to Russia.

See also:

Ukraine Says Paid Coupon on \$3 Billion Russian Eurobond

Original url:

<https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2014/06/23/finance-ministry-says-russia-yet-to-get-ukraines-733m-eurobond-payment-a36634>