

Sharapova Easy Winner in 1st Round at Wimbledon

June 24, 2014

The  Moscow Times

French Open champion Maria Sharapova defeated British wild-card entry Samantha Murray 6-1, 6-0 Tuesday in a first-round match at Wimbledon.

The fifth-seeded Sharapova won her first Grand Slam title at the All-England Club 10 years ago as a 17-year-old and added her fifth last month in a three-set win over Simona Halep at Roland Garros.

On Tuesday, Sharapova was perfect in converting all five of her break-point opportunities, while Murray failed to break the Russian's serve in the 58-minute match. Murray also had six double-faults.

Sharapova could face five-time champion Serena Williams in the quarterfinals.

See also:

Shrieking Sharapova Silences Halep in Paris

Original url:

<https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2014/06/24/sharapova-easy-winner-in-1st-round-at-wimbledon-a36709>