

LUKoil Sees Oil Output Decline by Less Than 2 Tons in 2015

By The Moscow Times

April 15, 2015

Russia's No.2 oil producer LUKoil may see its crude output decline by less than 2 million tons in Russia this year, a company official said Wednesday.

Ravil Maganov, who is in charge of LUKoil's upstream division, also told reporters oil output at the West Qurna-2 field in Iraq stood at 380,000-390,000 barrels per day.

Original url:

<https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2015/04/15/lukoil-sees-oil-output-decline-by-less-than-2-tons-in-2015-a45774>