By Alexandra Tyan

July 29, 2015

A recent poll by the All-Russia Public Opinion Research Center (VTsIOM) asked respondents how religion affected their lives, and whether they would be opposed to a religious building belonging to a faith they didn't practice opening in their neighborhood. The agency then compared the responses with data from 1990.

The poll was conducted July 11-12, 2015 among 1,600 respondents in 46 Russian regions.
