

Which Russian Regions are Most Affected by the Economic Crisis? (Infographic)

By Alexandra Tyan

July 30, 2015

The  Moscow Times

New statistics released from Russian State Statistics service Rosstat this week gave some insight into how Russian regions were coping with the country's economic crisis. While overall income is down and cost of living is up, some parts of the country are faring better than others.

Good life in Russia

Where are the best places to live in times of economic crisis?

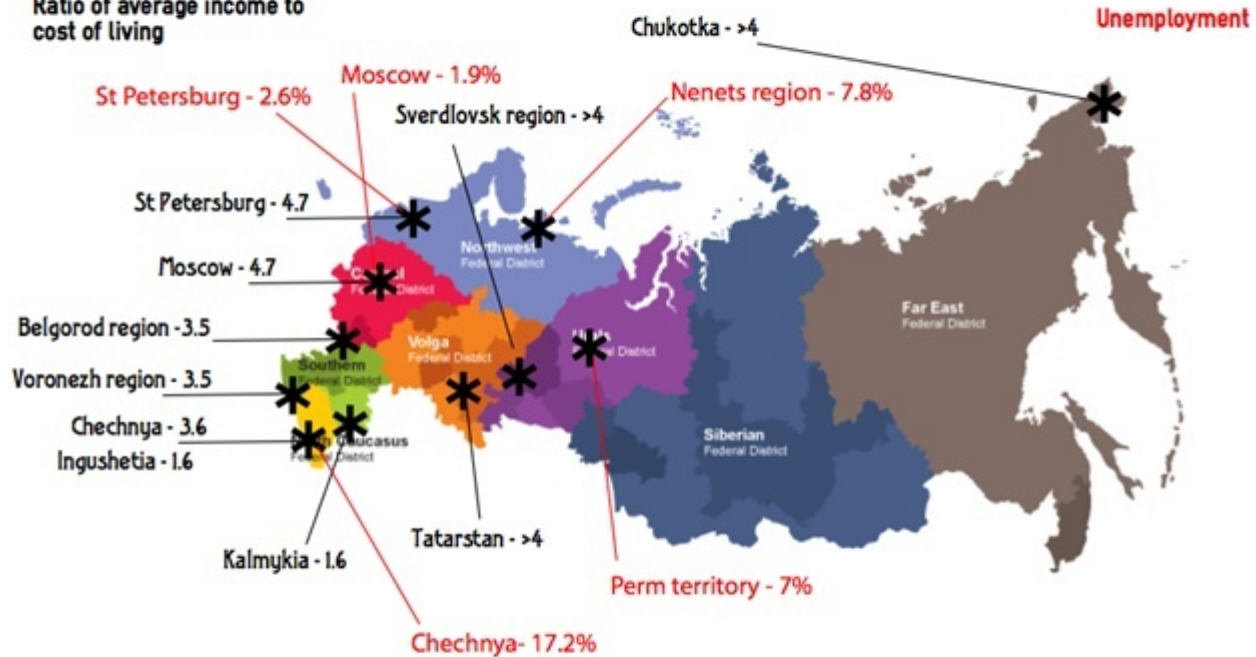

Since January 2015:

↓
- 3.1%
Overall income

↓
- 8.5%
Actual salary

↑
+ 17%
Cost of living:

Ratio of average income to cost of living

Spending cuts

% of all respondents who have started to reduce their spending

Big cities
40%

The Urals
75%

North-West
Russia
82%

Source: Rosstat, Romir

Original url:

<https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2015/07/30/which-russian-regions-are-most-affected-by-the-economic-crisis-infographic-a48639>