Moscow's Summer Riverboat Season to Begin Saturday

April 01, 2016

Moscow's riverboat season is due to open on Saturday, with one route scheduled, the Komsomolskaya Pravda newspaper reported Friday.

The ship will transport passengers between the Moscow City district and the Krymsky bridge on a daily basis, the newspaper reported.

Later in April, nine more routes will be added to the list, and up to 45 motor ships will be operated by the Capital Shipping company.

Excursions on the Moscow river will also be launched starting from April 3.
