

Travel Like the Tsars on the Imperial Train Across Siberia

August 01, 2016

Take the chance of a lifetime and travel from Moscow to Vladivostok on the "Imperial Russian" train, a luxury train decorated in the Imperial style, with a bar, dining car and a piano lounge. A one-way ticket will set you back more than $5,000, but what does that matter when you're traveling Romanov-style.

Original url:

<https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2016/08/01/travel-like-the-tsars-on-the-imperial-train-across-siberia-a54817>