

Bicycle Belles: Moscow's Women Take to Two Wheels

August 08, 2016

Moscow's fourth annual 'Ladies on Bicycles' parade took place at Sokolniki Park this Sunday, proving once and for all that wearing a dress is no reason to miss out on exploring the city on two wheels.

All 500 participants were encouraged to wear skirts, dresses and heels, while florists were also on hand to ensure that every bike also looked its best.
