

Homemade Bomb Discovered on Moscow Bus — Reports

November 23, 2016

The  Moscow Times

A homemade bomb has allegedly been uncovered on a bus in Moscow, the Moskva news agency reported Wednesday.

The bus had been traveling between Moscow and the Tula region town of Novomoskovsk, the agency reported, citing an unnamed source in the emergency services.

The vehicle was stopped on Orekhovy Bulvar in the south of the capital, where bomb disposal experts removed the device.

No one was hurt in the incident, Moskva reported.

Russia's Interior Ministry told the Ren television channel that it did not have any information on the incident.

Original url:

<https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2016/11/23/homemade-bomb-discovered-on-moscow-bus-reports-a56271>