The Moscow Times
30 YEARS
INDEPENDENT NEWS FROM RUSSIA

Gang Accused of Dealing Drugs From Russian Kindergarden

February 02, 2017

Still from the American series "Breaking Bad." Breaking Bad

A 28-year-old man has been accused of dealing drugs from a kindergarten in the Russian city of Yaroslavl.

The man, who lives in the neighboring city of Kostroma, targeted the school along with several accomplices. One of the gang members worked in the school building.

The gang packaged doses of mephedrone in the kindergarten before delivering them in dead drops around the city.

The man now stands charged with drug trafficking on a large scale, the local prosecutor's office said.

If found guilty, he faces up to 20 years in prison.

Original url:
https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2017/02/02/gang-accused-of-dealing-drugs-from-russian-kindergarden-a57018