Russia's White Collar Daredevil

February 15, 2017

Plans, charts, coffee, budgets, documents, ⊠negotiations, deadlines... it's just another day in the life of ordinary⊠ office clerk Pavel Makarov. He wears a shirt with cufflinks, a slim ⊠tie, trousers, a jacket and sunglasses. His responsibilities include putting coffee⊠ in the coffee machine.⊠

But outside the office, Pavel's life is rather different. Still donning his⊠ suit and tie, he plunges into the world of extreme sports, adrenaline, ⊠and adventure travel. With the aid of a camera, he began documenting ⊠his activities in his Instagram travel blog "The Office Plankton" (@macpava), which currently has more than 25,000 subscribers. It's worlds away from life at the office.
