Moscow's Feline Friends on National Cat Day

March 01, 2017

Russia celebrates all things feline on March 1 as part of World Cat Day. Founded in 2002 by the ⊠International Fund for Animal Welfare (IFAW) and other animal rights ⊠groups, the holiday is also marked in other countries on Aug. 8.

In honor of the special occasion, The Moscow Times has gathered the best photos of Moscow's four-legged friends out and about in the Russian capital.
