

HKUST & SKOLKOVO business schools launch a dual-degree international Executive MBA programme

January 01, 2018

The leading Russian private business school SKOLKOVO has announced a launch of a new programme in partnership with Hong Kong University of Science and Technology (HKUST) – EMBA for Eurasia. Top-managers and entrepreneurs from all over the world will learn to become the new leaders of Eurasian region. They will study in seven countries at the campuses of the top local business schools, receive two Executive MBA diplomas and develop a final international project. The programme is highly focused at Belt and Road Initiative (BRI), a significant development strategy lead by China and encompassing over 60 countries.

About HKUST: Business school of Hong Kong University of Science and Technology is one of the most prestigious in Asia. It's EMBA programme with Kellogg is ranked World's #1 by Financial Times Ranking and MBA programme is ranked #1 in Asia.

About SKOLKOVO: A leading private business school in Russia and the CIS. SKOLKOVO MBA programme is ranked #1 in Russia by business media SecretMag and the school brand in named #1 among the Russian business schools.

EMBA for Eurasia is a global programme with education taking place in seven destinations: Russia, China, the USA, Switzerland, Israel, Armenia and Kazakhstan. It is in a part-time format and lasts for 16 months. The key focuses are Innovation, 4th Industrial revolution and business development initiatives across the whole continent of Eurasia. All the professors of the programme are world-renowned experts in their fields teaching in top business schools, such as University of Cambridge, UC Berkeley, HKUST, University of St.Gallen and others.

Tuition fee for the programme is $130,000. The recruitment process is quite challenging as well – all the candidates need to pass the admission tests, show the certificate of English proficiency and pass the interviews with both business schools. The first admissions have already started and SKOLKOVO is promising some attractive Early-bird discounts.

Find out more and apply at <https://embahs.skolkovo.ru>

Original url:

<https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2018/01/01/hkust-skolkovo-business-schools-launch-a-dual-degree-international-executive-mba-programme-61082-a61082>