Some Russian Sunshine Through Instagram

January 31, 2018

After a particularly dark December we asked you to send in your best sunny shots of Russia, in an attempt to see the heat even if we can't feel it. Here are some of the best submissions.

Next week, we're looking for your best photos of Russia's many statues. Tag us on Instagram with #themoscowtimes of @themoscowtimes to join in!

Missed last week's gallery on the Epiphany? You can view it here.
