Russia's Love of Literature Seen Through Instagram

March 21, 2018

Last week, we asked you to show us your favorite bookstore, hardcover, library, personal collection or anything literary. Here are some of our favorite shots!

Next week, we're looking for rivers around Russia. Still frozen, freshly melted or somewhere in between, show us your best shots of water around you. Submit your picture on Instagram by tagging us @themoscowtimes or using #themoscowtimes hashtag. The best submissions will be shared on our next Instagram gallery.

Check out last week's Women's Day gallery here.
