

Two Mexican Women Injured After Taxi Ploughs Into Pedestrians in Central Moscow

June 16, 2018

Igor Stadnik / Moskva News Agency

The Mexican Embassy has said that two Mexican citizens were among those injured after a taxi drove into a crowd in central Moscow on Saturday.

In a tweet, the embassy said the women were lightly injured but that their condition was stable.

Embed:

En relación con el incidente ocurrido hoy en el centro de Moscú, se informa que dos ciudadanas mexicanas resultaron con lesiones leves y que su estado de salud se reporta como estable y fuera de peligro.

— Embamex Rusia (@EmbaMexRus) June 16, 2018

At least seven people were injured after a taxi drove onto the pavement on Moscow's Ilyinka Ulitsa on Saturday afternoon.

A witness at the scene told The Moscow Times that some of the victims had been wearing Mexican team colors.

Original url:

<https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2018/06/16/mexican-embassy-says-2-victims-run-over-by-taxi-in-central-moscow-in-stable-condition-a61863>