

Inside a Moscow Art Studio

August 08, 2018

Albina Shaimuratova

The Moscow Times sent photographer Albina Shaimuratova and journalist Andrei Muchnik to the studios of some of Moscow's up-and-coming young artists to see how and where they work and explore some of the connections between their spaces and their art. The first visit was to the studio of Anastasia Potemkina and Alexei Buldakov, aka Urban Fauna Lab.
