

Alleged Islamic State Members Killed During FSB Raid in Siberia

By Reuters

April 13, 2019

TASS / Maksim Slutsky

Two suspected Islamic State members were killed during a shootout in the Siberian town of Tyumen following a raid by the Federal Security Service (FSB).

Russia's National Anti-Terrorism Committee released footage in the early hours of Saturday showing security measures around the streets where the raid took place.

Embed:

According to the committee, the FSB obtained information about two suspected Islamic State members hiding in a house in the town on Friday, with intelligence suggesting the duo were planning to commit an attack.

Islamic State is a terrorist organization banned in Russia.

Original url:

<https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2019/04/13/alleged-islamic-state-members-killed-during-fsb-raid-in-siberia-a65228>