The Moscow Times
30 YEARS
INDEPENDENT NEWS FROM RUSSIA

Russia to Send Soldiers to Central African Republic as Part of UN Force

By Reuters

April 16, 2019

Moskva News Agency

Russia will send up to 30 military personnel to Central African Republic as part of a UN mission to help stabilize the country, according to a decree signed by President Vladimir Putin on Monday.

Related article: Central African Republic Open to Russian Military Base

The decree said the Russian contingent would include military observers, staff officers and military communications specialists.

Moscow has already sent military equipment to CAR and Russian instructors are on the ground helping train the country's armed forces.

Original url:

https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2019/04/16/russia-to-send-soldiers-to-central-african-republic-as-part-of-un-force-a65244