The Moscow Times
30 YEARS
INDEPENDENT NEWS FROM RUSSIA

Russian Troops to Join UN Force in Central African Republic Soon

By Reuters

June 03, 2019

Andrei Nikerichev / Moskva News Agency

Russia will in the near future send 30 military personnel to the Central African Republic where they will form part of a United Nations mission to help stabilize the country, Interfax news agency quoted a Russian foreign ministry official as saying.

Related article: Russia to Send Soldiers to Central African Republic as Part of UN Force

Russian President Vladimir Putin signed a decree in April on the despatch of the military contingent.

Original url:
https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2019/06/03/russian-troops-to-join-un-force-in-central-african-republic-soon-a65854