New Junk Food Bar in Patriarchy!

BURGER - BEYOND MEAT - CASUAL DINNER

October 30, 2019

Even though, or maybe because, the menu is dominated by high quality junk food, we love it.

Just a few weeks ago a new junk food restaurant opened on Spiridonovka in Patriarchy. We have already been there twice, because this restaurant is perfect for a casual dinner with friends or family.

Even though, or maybe because, the menu is dominated by high quality junk food, we love it. They serve burgers, hot dogs, french fries, mac&cheese, pizza but also salads and bowls. Prices are very reasonable. Our favourite is the vegetarian burger, which they serve with the new trendy -beyond meat patty-. It really doesn't taste vegetarian at all. Let us know what you think!

They also have a bar with a nice cocktail menu which we haven't tried yet, but that will definitely come soon.

The interior style is a mix between industry style, rustic and an wooden furniture, which creates the cool vibe of an old american dinner with a modern twist to it.

Enjoy!

Location: Ulitsa Spiridonovka 25/20
