

Moscow Scrambles to Contain the Coronavirus as First Case is Confirmed

March 03, 2020

The  Moscow Times

As the first confirmed case of the coronavirus has hit Moscow, authorities have transferred planes going to and from outbreak hubs to Sheremetyevo's Terminal F, where flights serving China had already been relocated.

Staff in hazmat suits greet and test incoming passengers for temperatures, and the Moscow metro has additionally started random temperature testing.
