Moscow Online Shopping Favorites

April 22, 2020

We have always appreciated the online shopping in Moscow for its convenience. Even more so now, when staying home under a very strict lock-down in Moscow we are encouraged to explore digital options as our main source. And we have been once again positively surprised by the broad selection, quality and impeccable service of many online stores which we have used during the last month. We will start sharing our first favorites with you now and also continue to share our tests of more online options to find great products and services which can make our quarantine life more bearable.

Omoloko Moscowliving

Flower shop "Dostavka tsvetov"
Fresh flowers at home is a great source of positive emotions which we all need now. Furthermore, delivering a flower bouquet is a kind gesture for a friend who needs to be cheered up or a small gift to somebody who celebrates a birthday in social isolation.
This shop offers attractive bouquets designs, freshness and selection of flowers, nice packaging and clear communication. This flower shop has very reasonable prices and as a regular customer we even got a 10% discount already from the second order. Besides, we could complete our orders with balloons and greeting cards with printed personal messages.
