

Springtime Blossoms Arrive in Moscow

May 11, 2020

After a historically warm, damp and grey winter, spring has finally arrived in Moscow, bringing a much-needed dose of sunshine and color back into our lives. The only problem? Most of the city's residents are unable to enjoy this beautiful season due to the coronavirus lockdown. If you're also stuck at home while the world grapples with the pandemic, you can still enjoy these photos of Moscow in all its springtime splendor:
