

Wild Animals Roam Russian Cities During Quarantine

May 19, 2020

The  Moscow Times

With the coronavirus pandemic leaving Russia's cities quiet and deserted, its wild animals have decided to check things out.

From bears to seals to even dolphins, who knows what you'll encounter on Russia's streets these days — even if it is too close for comfort.

Original url:

<https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2020/05/19/wild-animals-roam-russian-cities-during-quarantine-a70316>