Moscow's Face Mask Fashions Embrace the Funny, Weird and Nonsensical

May 30, 2020

The face mask has become a symbol of the coronavirus era, with people around the world donning the fabric pieces over their noses and mouths to protect themselves and others from the virus. Not satisfied with the basic pale-blue disposable mask, many Muscovites are putting their own spin on the ubiquitous protective garment. Here's a look at some of the best face mask fashions in Russia's capital:
