If you're looking to have a relaxed dinner in a quiet nature setting, Prichal is the place to be.

Only 30 minutes drive from the city you find this picturesque place on the river and across and among trees.

The food is good, not outstanding, but try their fish, sushi, the mangal roasts and fish soup. If you want something special you can reserve the "floating terrace" for your table. It is a bit cheesy, but might be fun to enjoy your dinner while floating on the river. Their terrace is huge and offers great views, but also the inside interior, especially the veranda, looks attractive for an indoor dinner on colder autumn days.

For the kids you can rent a little rowing boat for 500RB, which will give you a chance to enjoy the peaceful surroundings even more.

In summer there is a sun deck with 2 plunging pools in the river.

All in all a great "city escape" only 30 minutes drive from Moscow.

Enjoy!
