The Moscow Times
30 YEARS
INDEPENDENT NEWS FROM RUSSIA

Vehicle Breaches U.S. Ambassador's Moscow Residence – Embassy

September 18, 2020

Spaso House Vyacheslav Prokofyev / TASS

A vehicle driven by a Russian national crashed through the perimeter of Spaso House, the U.S. Ambassador to Russia's central Moscow residence, the U.S. Embassy's spokeswoman said Friday.

The unnamed Russian driving the vehicle was intercepted by Embassy staff and handed over to local authorities, spokeswoman Rebecca Ross said on Twitter.

Embed:

> At approximately 16:20, a Russian national in a vehicle breached the perimeter at Spaso House, the U.S. Ambassador's residence in Moscow. He was intercepted by Embassy personnel and turned over to local authorities. Amb Sullivan was not home at the time, and no one was injured.

— Rebecca Ross (@USEmbRuPress) September 18, 2020

Ambassador John Sullivan was not home at the time of the incident, which took place at around 4:20 p.m., Ross said. No one was injured.

The 112 Telegram channel reported without citing sources that the driver of the vehicle had been drunk.

Original url:
https://www.themoscowtimes.com/2020/09/18/vehicle-breaches-us-ambassadors-moscow-residence-embassy-a71487