

Motorcyclists Close Out Summer at Moscow's MosMotoFest

September 28, 2020

Over the weekend, bikers from across the country gathered in Moscow to mark the end of the 2020 motorcycling season and enjoy the last moments of the Indian summer before cold temperatures take over the capital. The MosMotoFest participants rode along Sakharov Avenue and made their way along the Garden Ring before arriving at Gorky Park for a day of festivities. Here's a closer look at the adrenaline-fueled event:

The event is known to be the loudest of all the capital's festivals. Alexander Avilov / Moskva News Agency
